Forecast for Monday 03 Jun 2024

Weather: Dry with occasional clear spells overnight, although becoming increasingly cloudy from the northwest, especially towards dawn. A rather cloudy and murky start on Monday, with mist and low cloud on the summits. However, the cloud should lift, thin and break up to give some bright or occasional sunny spells into the afternoon. A fine end to the day, with clear spells developing after dark.

Chance of cloud-free hill tops above 600m: 40% early morning, improving to 85% in the afternoon.

Low cloud and visibility: Cloud bases down to 500m early morning, lifting to above the summits by mid-morning. Very good visibility generally, but locally poor in low cloud and mist early morning.
